Introduction

The book Cultural Differences has been used in a variety of academic ESL courses, including integrated-skills, reading-focused, reading- and writing-combined, and discussion-focused. For all of these types of courses, the reading along with the study guides and vocabulary exercises are vital and, thus, are included in the book. For a variety of reasons, some teachers many want to assign only those exercises, but for others, including a discussion component is crucial. These Supplementary Activities are designed to help students delve deeper into the book through small-group and whole-class discussions and outside-of-class activities. In each unit of the book, there is a note to the teacher indicating when discussions and outside-of-class activities could best be included.

In general, the recommended steps for using the book together with these supplemental materials are:

Using Cultural Differences:

◆ 1. Students complete the Preview for the unit in the book.
◆ 2. They do the reading passage for the unit and complete the Study Guide and Vocabulary Exercises in the book.
◆ 3. They complete the Preparation for Discussion in the book.

Using Supplementary Activities:

◆ 4. After printing out the online Small-Group Discussion forms for Students A, B, and C (or photocopying a hard copy from Supplementary Activities), the teacher assigns students to groups and gives each student a handout (A, B, or C) in order to give their discussions structure. The students follow the directions on their form.
◆ 5. After the small-group discussions for each of the Units 1 to 5, the teacher prints out or photocopies the student handout for that Whole-Class Discussion, giving one to each student. These handouts introduce a specific technique that students can apply for carrying out an effective whole-class discussion. Using the handout, the teacher, as facilitator, explains how the technique works. Then using the discussion questions, the students apply the technique while discussing the unit in a whole-class format. For Units 6-14, there are no whole-class-discussion supplemental materials to be photocopied, but a list of discussion prompts are provided in the supplemental materials as a resource for carrying out whole-class discussions about the content in those units.
Finishing Up with Cultural Differences:

♦ 6. The students complete the Writing Technique for each unit in the book.

♦ 7. The teacher prints or photocopies the directions for each unit’s Applied Outside-Class Interactions / Observations, and gives a copy of the handout to each student. The directions guide them through the outside-of-class experience.

After Completing Units 1-3, 4-6, 7-9, 10-12, and 13-14:

♦ 8. The teacher prints or photocopies the appropriate quiz and has the students take it.

At the back of this Supplementary Activities book, there are Answer Keys for the quizzes and for the exercises in parts 1, 2, and 4 of each unit in Cultural Differences.
